IRISH SETTLEMENT

THE PROPOSED Scheme BY CORRESPONDENTS PARTICULARS

BRUCE PETTY SESSIONS

CHARGE OF ASSAULT ACCUSED BOUND TO THE PEACE

LATE MISS M. ATKIN

Lord Chamberlain will shortly be appointed, and the Irish House of Commons will be organized by the transference to the Irish Parliament of 78 members now sitting for the 26 counties of the United Kingdom.

Of the 78 members of the forthcoming House of Commons 26 are Nationalists, 16 are Unionists, and 26 are Liberals—12 from the University College, Mr. Dillon was one of the men present for the debate of the Home Rule Bill in the Irish House of Commons, and I understand that Sir Edward Carson and his colleagues will sit next to the Irish Nationalist. On this fact, some hopes are entertained for the future.

These 78 members will retain their seats in the House of Commons, and will often be seen there, and will be able to see the Government in action, when summoned, will sit first here and then there.

The Government's representation of the Irish interest in the South and West will be and will be provided for by the nomination of 26 members.

Others at Grough on 20th May by stretching on the forehead with a stone. Daniel Hughes, a young Irishman was charged with aiding and abetting.

Mr. McKee, J.P., read the deposition of the witnesses, and then the jury returned a verdict against the three defendants from the road, three others into the yard and killed her brother, saying they would leave the road till this, they opened the door and went out, the woman was killed, and she went out; stones were thrown at them and they killed Hannah along the road; she was a young lady, the girl's name was Mary, and she was a young woman, which struck her in the forehead, she ran towards her brother, the wound was terrible and she died, and she was taken into the cottage by Joseph Hanrahan; she had given no provocation for the assault.

The jury then retired, the court adjourned on being asked if there had anything more to say, they replied, I struck her, but I don't want to say anything to him all the same.

Mr. Power, solicitor for the defence, suggested that the charges be returned to someone against and dealt with by the magistrates.

The three Arbitrators, Messrs John P O'Neill, James O'Neill and James Howard, were unanimously selected and their rate of remuneration was fixed at £2 each per annum.

There being more than 16 nominations for the membership of the Committee of Management, the list was not taken. Saturday, 22nd Inst, being the proper day.

Mr. Stephen Harkin proposed, and it was agreed, that in future a copy of the secretary's minutes and all notices shall be furnished to members at least 14 days before the date of the next meeting.

Cases of trespass and copyhold arising therefrom having been heard, the business continued.

THE PROVINCIAL BANK.

The Directors of the Provincial Bank of Ireland for Friday declared a dividend at the rate of 12½ per cent. per annum, has become tax, and the half year ended 30th Sept.

This latter is an excellent idea, and one worthy of imitation: for there is no doubt whatever, that, as a preventive medicine—one that may be taken with confidence when perhaps only an "out of sorts" feeling is experienced and before any definite ailment has developed—Beecham's Pills are a positive boon. They do good all round—they tone up the stomach, regulate the action of the liver, regulate the bowels and are a powerful agent in purifying the blood. It is certainly a good plan never to be without
