Jerome Tierney below was written as Jerome only when his marriage was announced in the Freeman's Journal in 1889. All other sources call him Jeremiah.

Thomas B. Tierney erected a Tombstone in Mount St. Lawrence, in Memory of his Father, Mother and sister Bridget as well as a Catherine Tierney. However, Jeremiah and his wife Rebecca are buried in the same grave, Yc 105 along with their youngest daughter Agatha.

10 children were born to this marriage but only 8 were living in 1911. I believe the two who died were Randal who was buried on the 11/11/1907 and Jeremiah who was buried on the 09/04/1893. Both were buried in Plot Yc 105, Mount St Lawrence. Jeremiah was only 6 weeks old and the family were living then at 63 Athlunkard St, Limerick.

Jeremiah leased 4 building sites from the Vokes sisters of Ballinacurra just west of the Three houses known as Vokes Villa's. It would seem that he built two houses and called them Querrin Villa's. He lived in No 1 and is shown there in the 1912 Postal Directory for Limerick. The other two sites seem to have been sub-leased by Jeremiah to a Mr J. Hannon.

Jeremiah and family are recorded in the 1911 Census as living at House 44, Ballinacurra Hart. A 2nd class house with 3 Front windows and 7 rooms. This goes to prove that the numbers allocated by the Census Records have no connection to the actual street numbers.
